LITTLE BLUE DOOR

DAY 1

ARRIVAL DAY - NOVEMBER 20TH

Checking-in & Cooking

Welcome to the stunning Piemonte Region, renowned for its rich cultural heritage, stunning landscapes, and world-class gastronomy. It is home to the majestic Alps, offering breathtaking mountain views. The region is also famous for its wine, particularly Barolo and Barbaresco, which are among Italy's finest. Piemonte’s capital, Turin, is a hub of history and industry, once serving as Italy's first capital and now known for its elegant architecture, automotive industry (Fiat), and a vibrant arts scene. Its truffle festivals, particularly in Alba, further enhance its reputation as a culinary destination.

Overview of Day 1:

Arrival:

- Arrival and check-in to the hotel. Rest and enjoy the amenities of the hotel. Enjoy drinks at the bar or relax at the SPA.

Cooking Class @ 5:00pm:

- The cooking class experience consists of a professional lesson with the Chef, where you will prepare a 3-course menu, usually a starter, a pasta dish and a dessert. The experience lasts around 1h 30m.

Dinner @ 7:30pm:

- Enjoy what you cooked at the fantastic restaurant at the hotel. If the weather allows enjoy dinner outdoors with a beautiful view into the fields of Piemonte.

Day 1 Inclusions:

- Accommodation
- Cooking Class
- Dinner with a glass of wine

Day 1 Extras:

- Extra alcohol
- Airport transport

DAY 2

TRUFFLE TIME - NOVEMBER 21ST

Truffles, Exploring Alba & More

Truffle hunting in Piemonte is a quintessential experience, blending nature, tradition & gastronomy in one of the world's most renowned truffle-producing regions. The region is famous for its prized white truffles, particularly around Alba, which are considered some of the most aromatic & valuable in the world.

Overview of Day 2:

Morning:

- Have breakfast at the hotel.

Private Truffle Hunting @ 10:00am:

- You'll be picked up from your hotel and taken to a private truffle forest for an exciting hunt. You'll be joined by a guide and a local dog, expertly trained to sniff out the finest truffles. The experience will last around 1.5 hours. Followed by a delicious cheese and cold cuts platter with tea and coffee. We suggest wearing sport clothes and bring rubber boots or at least trekking shoes since it can be muddy and quite steep.*

Lunch @ 1:30pm:

- Enjoy a well deserved lunch in a local restaurant in Alba!

Afternoon visit to the Alba Truffle Fair:

- The Alba White Truffle Fair, held annually, is a celebration of the season, drawing food enthusiasts and buyers from across the globe.

Dinner @ 8:30pm:
Dinner at a beautiful local restaurant, not too far from your hotel.

Day 2 inclusions:

- Accommodation & Breakfast
- Truffle Hunting
- Transportation to Alba and Back
- Lunch & Dinner with glass of wine

Day 2 Extras:

- Extra alcohol
- Truffles
